The French Escape
BY CHÂTEAU DES VIGIERS

No need to choose between the pleasure of golf and the pleasure of fine wine.

Spend six days discovering two of Southwest France's greatest pleasures: its vineyards and its golf courses.

You will stay in a four-star hotel set within a 16th-century château, surrounded by peaceful countryside. Two guided days will take you through the vineyards of Bergerac and Saint-Émilion, while two days of unlimited golf allow you to enjoy the estate's 27 holes at your own pace.

Winery visits, transport, reservations and golf arrangements are all organised for you. The stay alternates between discoveries, personal encounters and time outdoors, with enough freedom to enjoy every experience without rushing.

An escape created for travellers who do not wish to choose between the pleasure of golf, fine wine and the French way of life.

Highlights of your stay

What you will experience

5 nights at the Château

A four-star hotel set within a 16th-century château.

Your guides Vincent & Susan

Wine is always better when someone brings the story to life.

Vincent and Susan will accompany you through the vineyards of Bergerac and Saint-Émilion.

English, passionate about Southwest France and its wines, they make each visit relaxed, personal and easy to understand.

They are there to introduce you to the producers, translate when needed, explain what you are tasting and answer your questions — without turning the day into a wine lesson.

Good to know

Before you plan your escape

Q.

Do I need to know about wine?

Not at all. The experience is designed to be enjoyable whether you are discovering wine for the first time or already have some knowledge. Vincent and Susan keep the explanations clear, relaxed and easy to follow.

Q.

Will we need to drive during the wine days?

No. Transport during your guided wine days is organised for you, so you can taste, discover and enjoy the day without worrying about driving.

Q.

Is this a group tour?

No. Your escape is organised around your own stay. The guided days are designed to feel personal and relaxed, with plenty of time to enjoy the region at your own pace.

Q.

Can we extend or personalise our stay?

Yes. You can add extra wine, golf or free days when planning your escape. If you have a particular request, our reservation team can also discuss it with you.

Q.

What happens after I send my request?

We check the availability of your accommodation and experiences before sending you a personalised proposal. Sending a request does not commit you and no payment is taken at this stage.

Need a little help?

Let's plan your French Escape.

Dates, pace, golf, optional days, travel from Bordeaux or Bergerac: our team will help shape the stay around you and check availability on your behalf.

No payment at this stage.

Your request will be personally reviewed by the Château des Vigiers reservation team.
